Sommelier's Picks

By considering the Tamarind menu's vibrant flavors and it's intensity in spice, Our Sommelier has picked the best wines to make your dining experience a memorable one.

White Wine

Sepp Moser Grüner
Veltliner Von Den Terrassen
2021, Austria (Biodynamic)

Light, zesty, and acidic food deserves a light, zesty, and acidic wine. Sweet and sour. Fruity and savory. Crisp and firm. Green Papaya Salad, but the unripe fruit flavors in Grüner will make us try the pair again and again!

$ 70

Richmond Plains
Pinot Gris
2020, Nelson, New Zealand

Dry, Minerally, Citrus bite on the finish results a great combination for Thai fish, pork and chicken.

$ 100

Cloudy Bay
Sauvignon Blanc
2021, Marlborough, New Zealand

The flavours of New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc - and this is why it is so popular - are powerful and aromatic: citrus, gooseberry and passionfruit in spades. A Thai green chicken curry or a Thai-style chicken salad is ace.

$ 130

Rosé Wine

Minuty 'Prestige' Cote
de Provence
2022, France

Probably the best and most successful wine match for Thai dishes across the spectrum, from salads, stir-fries, noodles and curries is a glass of cool, crisp Rosé. The fresh fruit flavours and dry character of the wine work beautifully in harmony with the flavours, texture, weight and even chilli heat of Thai food.

$ 90

Red Wine

Marchesi di Barolo
Barbera D'Alba
2019, Italy

The fragrance is fresh with fruity notes reminiscent of blackberries, red fruit jam and spicy scents of vanilla and toasted hazelnut. The taste is full and rich a perfect pair for the spicy Indian or Thai food.

$ 75

Domaine Faiveley Mercurey
La Framboisière Rouge Pinot Noir
2022, Burgundy, France

Fruit-forward and acidic characteristics, French Pinot Noir has the right blend of elegance and freshness to round out this more savory alternative to Pad Thai.

$ 120

Barbi Brunello di Montalcino
2018, Italy

Brunello has continued to seduce us with its wealth of aromas, elegance and remarkable balance without forgetting the appeal of floral scents such as violet, geranium, rose and fruity notes such as ripe cherry and forest fruits. This wine is perfect for accompanying foods with a strong taste of umami. The more concentrated and complex wines, obtained from riper grapes, also have more umami than others. The spices and herbs will definitely recall the fragrances of the wine.
